VOLUME 55

PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

PLYMOUTH, WISCONSIN

In Appreciation

Mr. Wayne Lueck

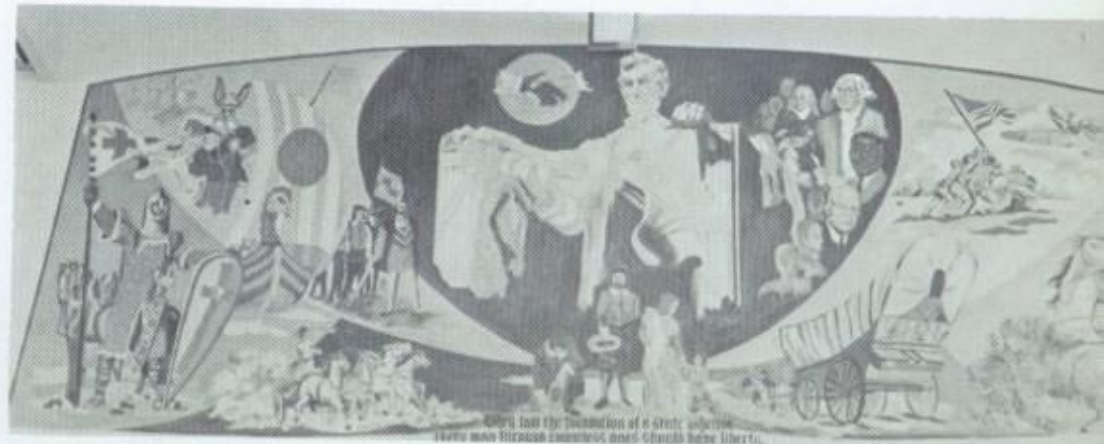

The students of Plymouth High School would like to show their appreciation to a man of integrity, understanding, and selflessness who is respected by both students and teachers. The seniors especially realize his efforts. Without his help the class of '70 couldn't have achieved many of the things they attempted. He has inspired and encouraged us for four years and in sincere appreciation we proudly dedicate this 55th edition of the Quit Qui Oc to Mr. Wayne Lueck.

PHS - The People

A school is only a building without the people.

Quiet people

Dreaming people

Working people

World-moving people

Loving people

Peace-seeking people

These are the people that are
PHS

PHS - The Mood

Spirit isn't just what you have when it's your sixth game and you haven't lost.

It's the pride you feel for PHS,

It's the mood of a cheering crowd
a lonely hall
a pushing lunch line
a dying bonfire
a victory dance
3:20 on Friday
8:15 on Monday

PHS is the spirit of '70

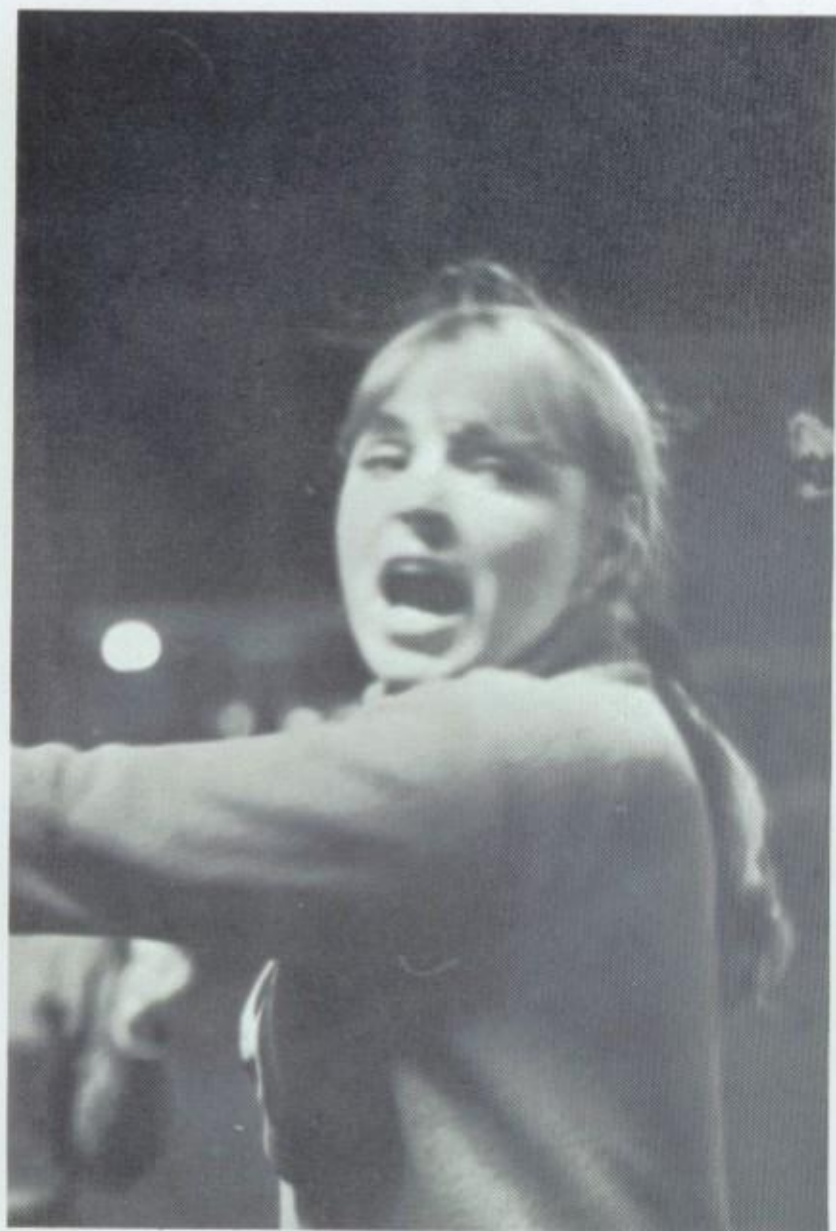

PHS - The Fun

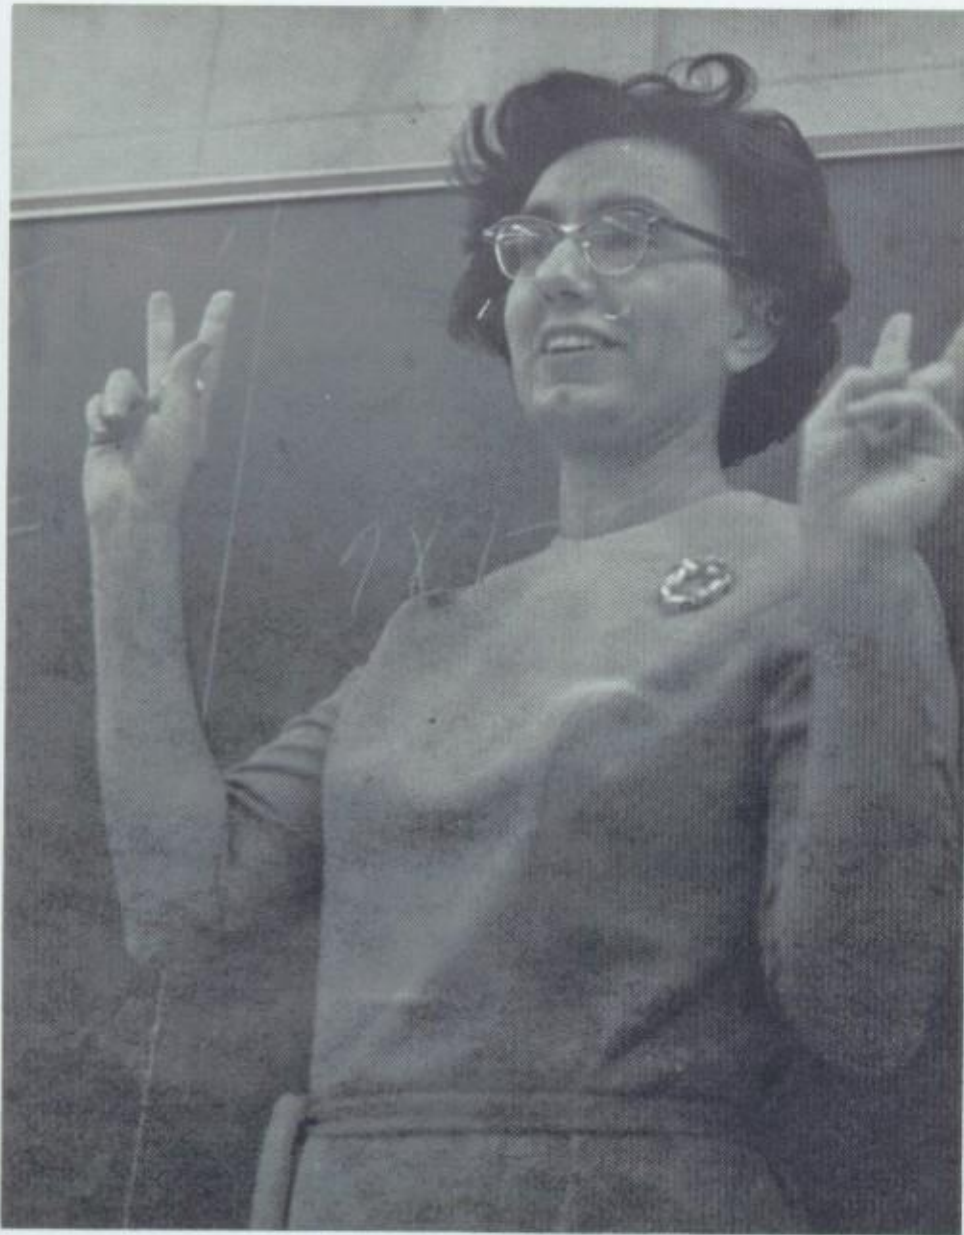

The bell rings, the class is over
It's time to relax

to dance to laugh to cheer
to do something silly
you hope no one sees to believe that all work won't work

PHS Memories

Do you remember . . .

The first day of school when we said,
"This year it's going to be different"
but it wasn't

Homecoming week with the running around looking for chicken wire, marching in the parade,
playing a hard game of football,
then trying to look cool at the dance

The night the basketball team became district champs and we paraded them through town

The strangers from New York who left as friends

The year ends, but memories linger on.

Academics

Behind every efficient system is an administration that makes decisions and takes responsibility.

Principal John C. Richards makes the decisions that directly affect Plymouth High School students. Assistant Principal Allen Linster is in charge of school discipline and attendance. This is the first year PHS has had an assistant principal.

Elected by the taxpayers, the Board of Education exercises legislative and judicial functions. Members determine the educational needs of the community and plan provisions for them. Mr. Amundson serves as the executive officer for the Board and is its professional advisor.

The guidance program, under the direction of Mr. Ander Eck, Mr. Finke and Mr. Conger, helps students to plan their education and future careers.

Counselors assist with programming for classes, give information about college and administer tests to show students where their talents lie.

Mr. Ander Eck advises students on career plans.

MR. WAYNE LUECK, Special Education

MRS. JANE DERLIN, Psychologist

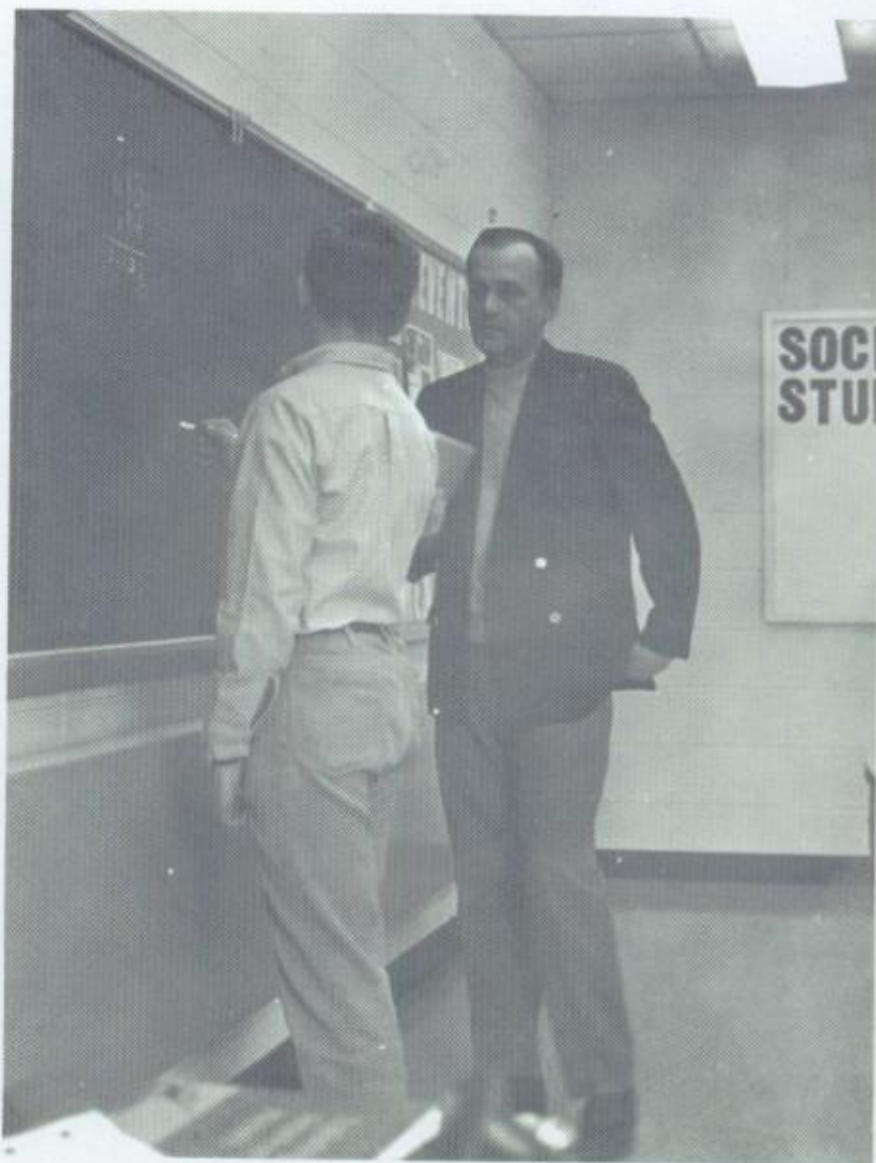

MRS. ELAINE ROLZIN, Speech Therapist

For Special Help

Special education, taught by Mr. Lueck, educates students in basic subjects such as math, spelling, and social studies. Special education students may supplement their work with courses in home economics and industrial arts.

Mrs. Rolzin, speech therapist, and Mrs. Derlin, psychologist, are available for special help.

Mr. Lueck shows one of his students that math doesn't have to be hard.

To Supplement Studies

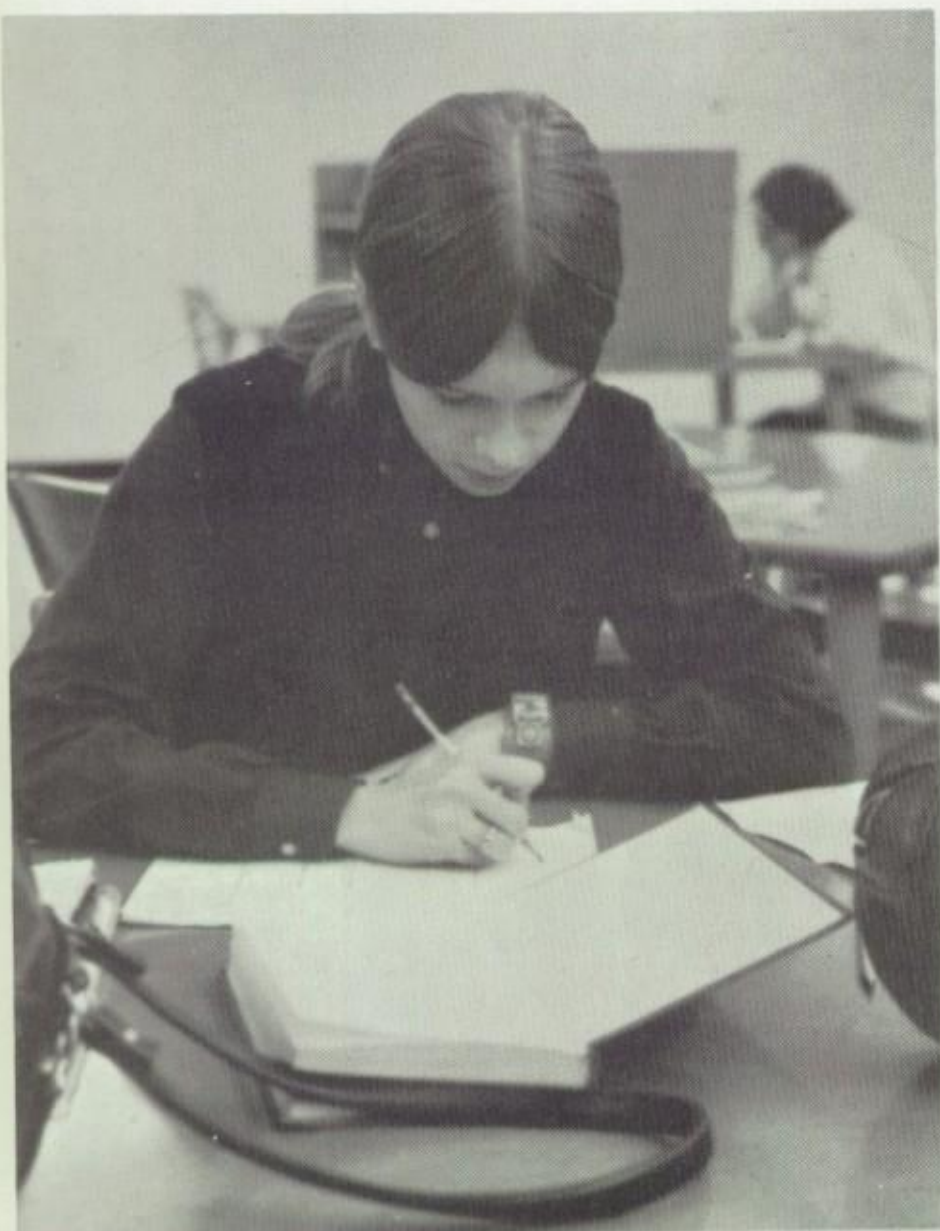

We are very lucky to have a splendid library in our school. It provides a place for students to do research, read the news, and study. Mrs. Paske, head librarian, keeps the library quiet and in order. She is helped by Mrs. Gilman and the Library Club.

Foreign Language

A knowledge of a foreign language is an advantage for any person and at PHS four languages are offered: Spanish, German, Latin and French. French is the newcomer to the group. Although it is non-credit and taught during students' free time, those who take it find it rewarding. Besides teaching the language these classes also offer a chance for a student to learn about foreign customs and history.

The Voice of Singing

The art department under the direction of Mr. Howdle has developed several new lines of study. This year art history was taught in the advanced classes, and lettering and paper sculpture was introduced into earlier art classes.

The chorus has contributed in many ways to the school's activities. They sang for the Homecoming pep rally and at half-time during the football game the next night. For Christmas the chorus presented "A Time for Singing" which included carols sung with a nativity background. They prepared for the music festival and concluded their year's appearance with a spring concert.

The Chorus Line

This year the number of girls enrolled in the chorus was so great that it had to be divided into freshman-sophomore and junior-senior sections. However they worked on the same material and got together for both the Christmas and Spring Concerts plus the annual spring music contest. For both of the concerts the girls' chorus teamed up with the mixed chorus for really impressive shows. Backdrops, colorful lighting, and props were used to create a festive mood, and the public's enthusiasm has proven that hard work pays off.

Something new was added to the music department this year—a music theory class. Interested students met three days a week and learned principles of music and also a little bit about composing.

The band, consisting of about 80 members spent the year marching in parades, taking part in music contests and giving concerts.

Homecoming was a busy time for the band as they marched in the parade and prepared a half-time show for the football game. Throughout the year the band provided the music for pep rallies.

Spring brought preparations for the solo and ensemble contest and the annual music festival, both held in New Holstein. At the spring concert the band showed students and their parents the music they had been practicing all year. Band members also provided music for baccalaureate and graduation.

Tilling the Soil

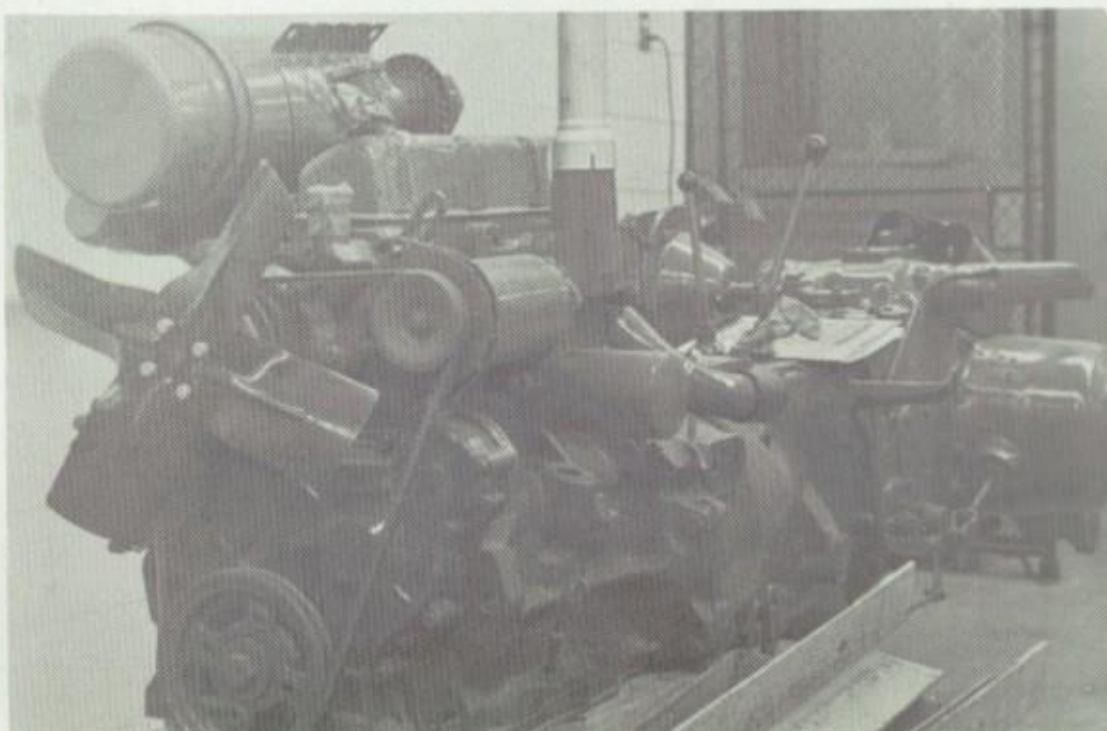

A fine agriculture department is natural for a school in the dairy center of the country. PHS courses train interested students in farm management, crops and soils, and animal husbandry. A new class, horticulture, was offered for the first time this year. Boys aren't the only people involved; girls are welcome to study agriculture too.

Making A House a Home

Recently, the Home Economics Department has become more specialized. Besides the regular Home Economics courses involving cooking and sewing, such classes as Human Growth, Housing and Family Living have been added. These have become increasingly popular with the girls, and the boys are also showing interest in the classes. This type of curriculum is especially important since it stresses the practical experience we will need in later life.

Developing Business Sense

The Business Education Department offers a wide variety of classes to help the student get acquainted with the business world. Such classes include typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, notehand, and distributive education. A co-op training program is also offered. This enables the students to obtain on-the-job training and at the same time receive a salary and credits toward a diploma.

Academic Achievement

National Honor Society is an organization designed to grant recognition to superior students. The emblems of this society are the keystone and the flaming torch. The keystone, symbolizing their ideals, bears the letters C...S...L...S which stand for the four principles of the organization: character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Not more than 15% of the senior class and not more than 5% of the junior class may be elected.

Four students took study courses at colleges around the country last summer. Larry Schultz and Pat Hughes studied chemistry at Lakeland College. Sharon Grant traveled to the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia for genetics research. Bill Wifler took advanced math courses at the University of Northern Arizona.

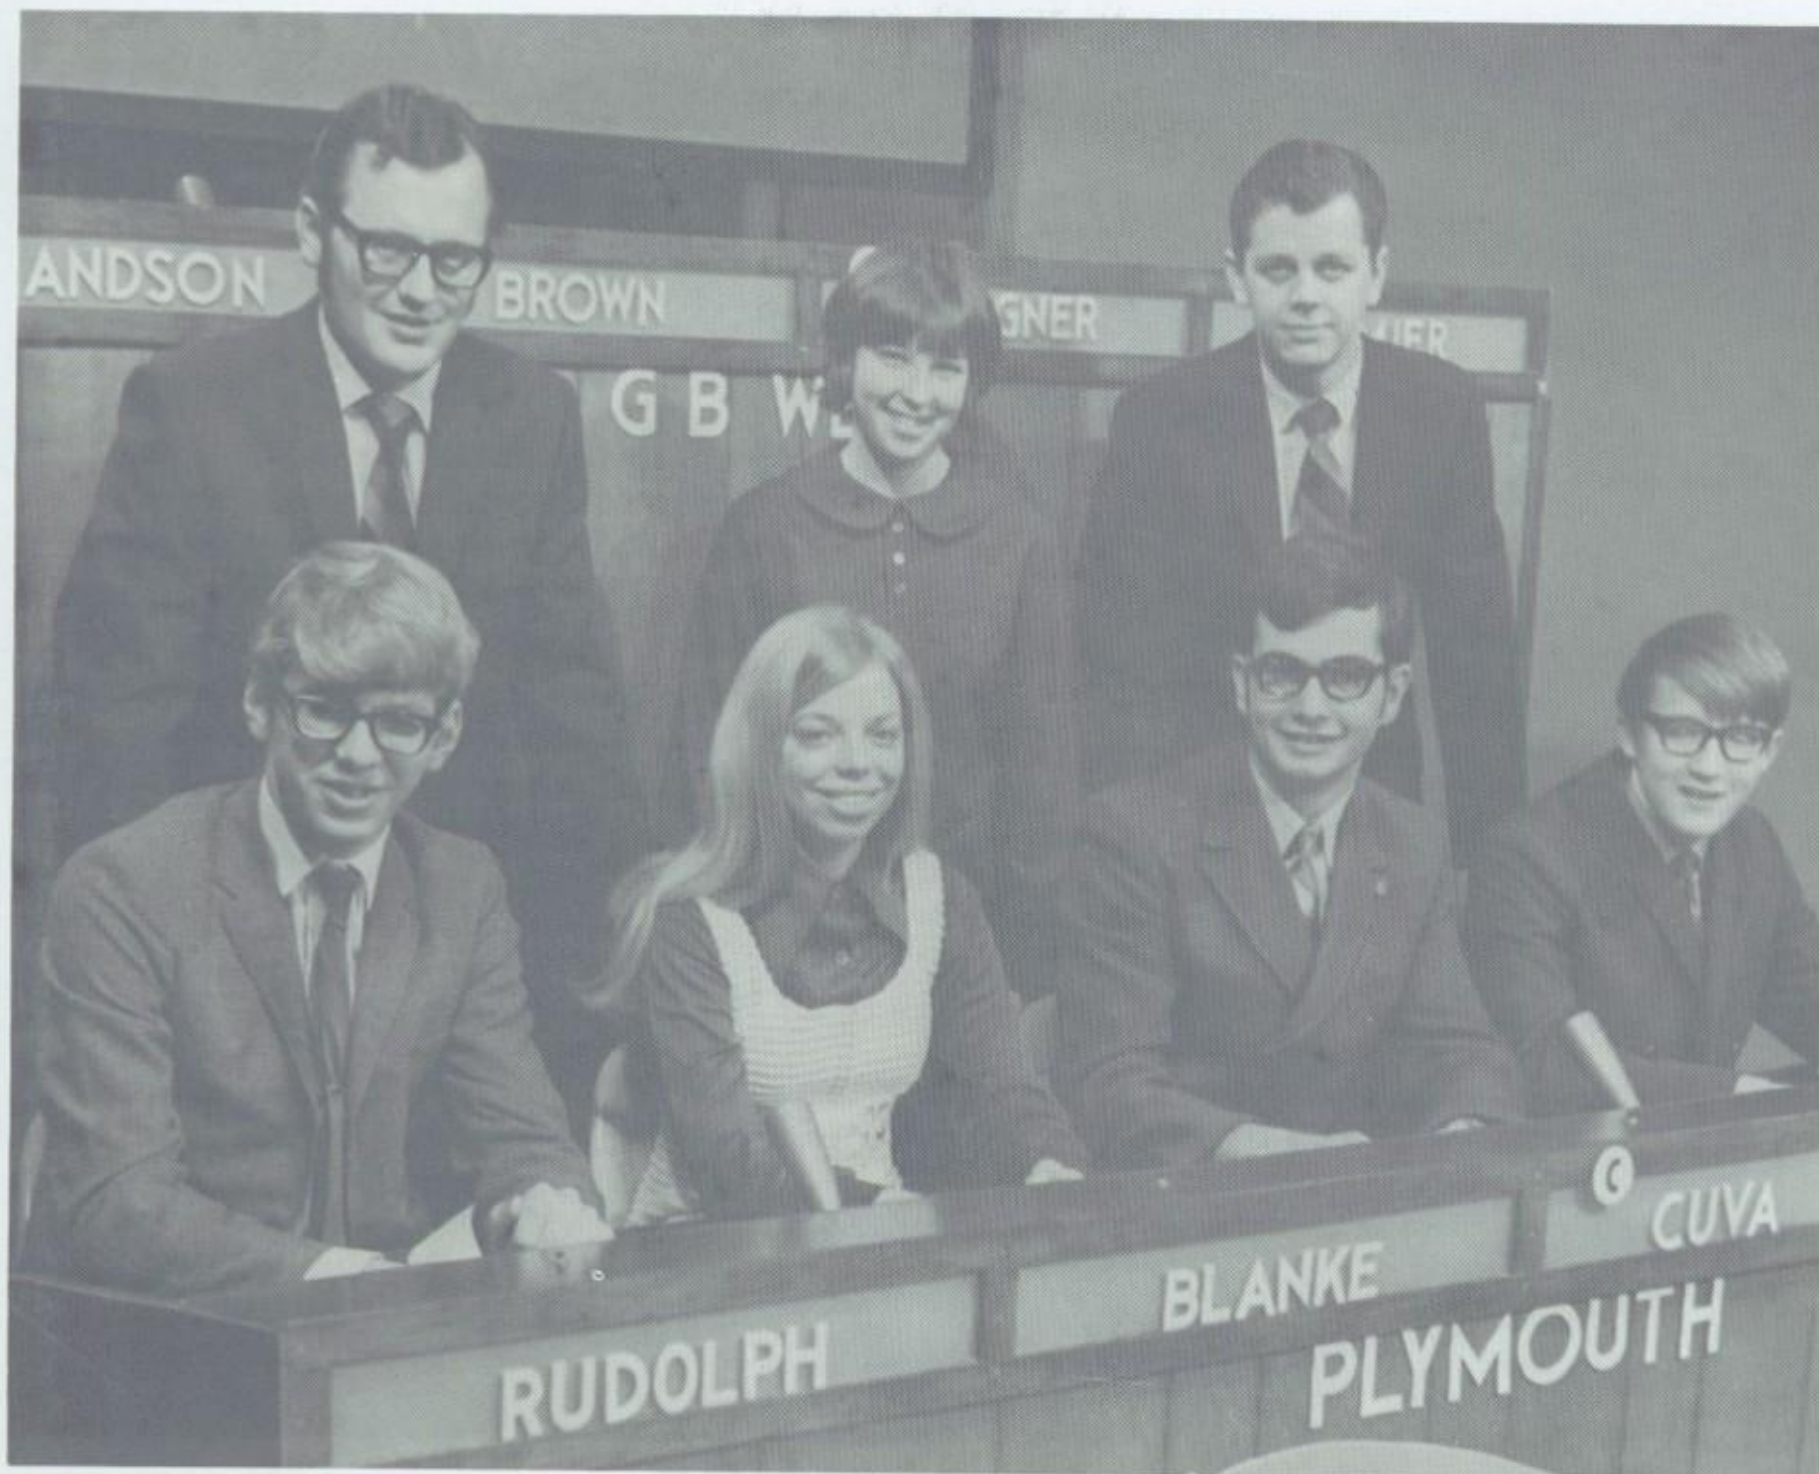

On February 22 Plymouth High School was represented on the "5 High" television quiz show. Although the scholars, Robbie Rudolph, Frank Cuva, John Kinas, and Jean Blanke (with Judy Ott as alternate) did not do as well as they had hoped, it was an interesting experience.

Marco Mora AFS Student From Costa Rica

Dear Friends:

I left my home country for a whole year, to come to an American community with many purposes: I wanted to be a part of American Field Service and serve as one of the thousands of kids who are trying to find a certain kind of understanding between peoples of the world, I wanted to learn a different way of living and even, look into a new way of looking at life's meanings, I wanted to see and live together with different people: I had many things I wanted to do and reach. But what now counts is what I've really found in Plymouth, things I learned that I never thought I was going to learn, people I met which are now my own friends and many, many things I did, were done because of the help and comprehension I found in this city.

I'm unable to admit that all my purposes came out the way I wanted, but what I want to say is that, after been lived around here, it's impossible to name the things I've learned, the people I lived with and the help I received in order to reach not only the first things I was looking for, but much, much, more than that.

Thank you very much,

Marco Antonio Mora

Homecoming 1969

This year PHS experienced one of its most impressive Homecomings. The festivities started with the building of floats and windows. Participation was almost 100% and Homeroom C107 walked off with first place for their float the "Flying Wedge." Class hall decorations played a big part in creating the mood. The seniors received first prize for their "Senior Speedway."

Things really started moving at the pep rally held on Thursday night with the bonfire held immediately after. The crowning of the king and queen along with the presentation of the court took place on Friday afternoon. After the coronation of Queen Barb Lasek and King Tom Mugan there was a parade made up of floats, the PHS band and the Pantherettes drill team.

Some of the Panther fans were disappointed with the 14 - 14 score in the fierce game with Valders. At the dance Latoska La Font and the Dynamic Exploits provided some music and the chance to unwind after a frenzied Homecoming week.

Sadie Hawkins

This year Tri-Hi-Y revived Sadie Hawkins at PHS. Turnabout week began when the girls took over the guys' duties, (such as carrying books and lunch trays) and ended with the dance Friday night. Naturally, the girls had to ask the guys and pay their way at a penny a pound. The cafeteria was decorated with bales of hay, corn stalks, a barrel of "mountain dew" and a marriage booth. Tesse Burkart and Mark Hellestad reigned as Daisy May and Lil Abner.

River City celebrates the Fourth of July.

"The Music Man" is the story of Harold Hill, a crafty salesman who comes to River City, Iowa to sell band instruments by posing as a music professor. However, Marian Paroo, the town librarian spots him as a fraud immediately. As time passes, though, she begins to like Hill and decides not to expose him. When the citizens become suspicious of Hill's "Think System" the professor turns the trick to win the love of Marian and the respect of the people.

Roslyn - Plymouth Exchange

Making friends is easy enough.

This year's student exchange from Roslyn Heights, New York arrived February 21 and left February 27. During their visit they not only became acquainted with their own exchange partners, but also with many other members of PHS.

During the week the exchangees took part in snowball fights, parties, a trip to Milwaukee to see the museum and the Miller Brewery, and a snipe hunt (with no snipe being caught, of course.)

After the farewell assembly and pep rally Friday morning the Roslyn exchange returned home. They left a few tears and took back a week full of memories.

Faculty Makes It

In what turned out to be a close contest, the PHS faculty team ousted the seniors 54-48.

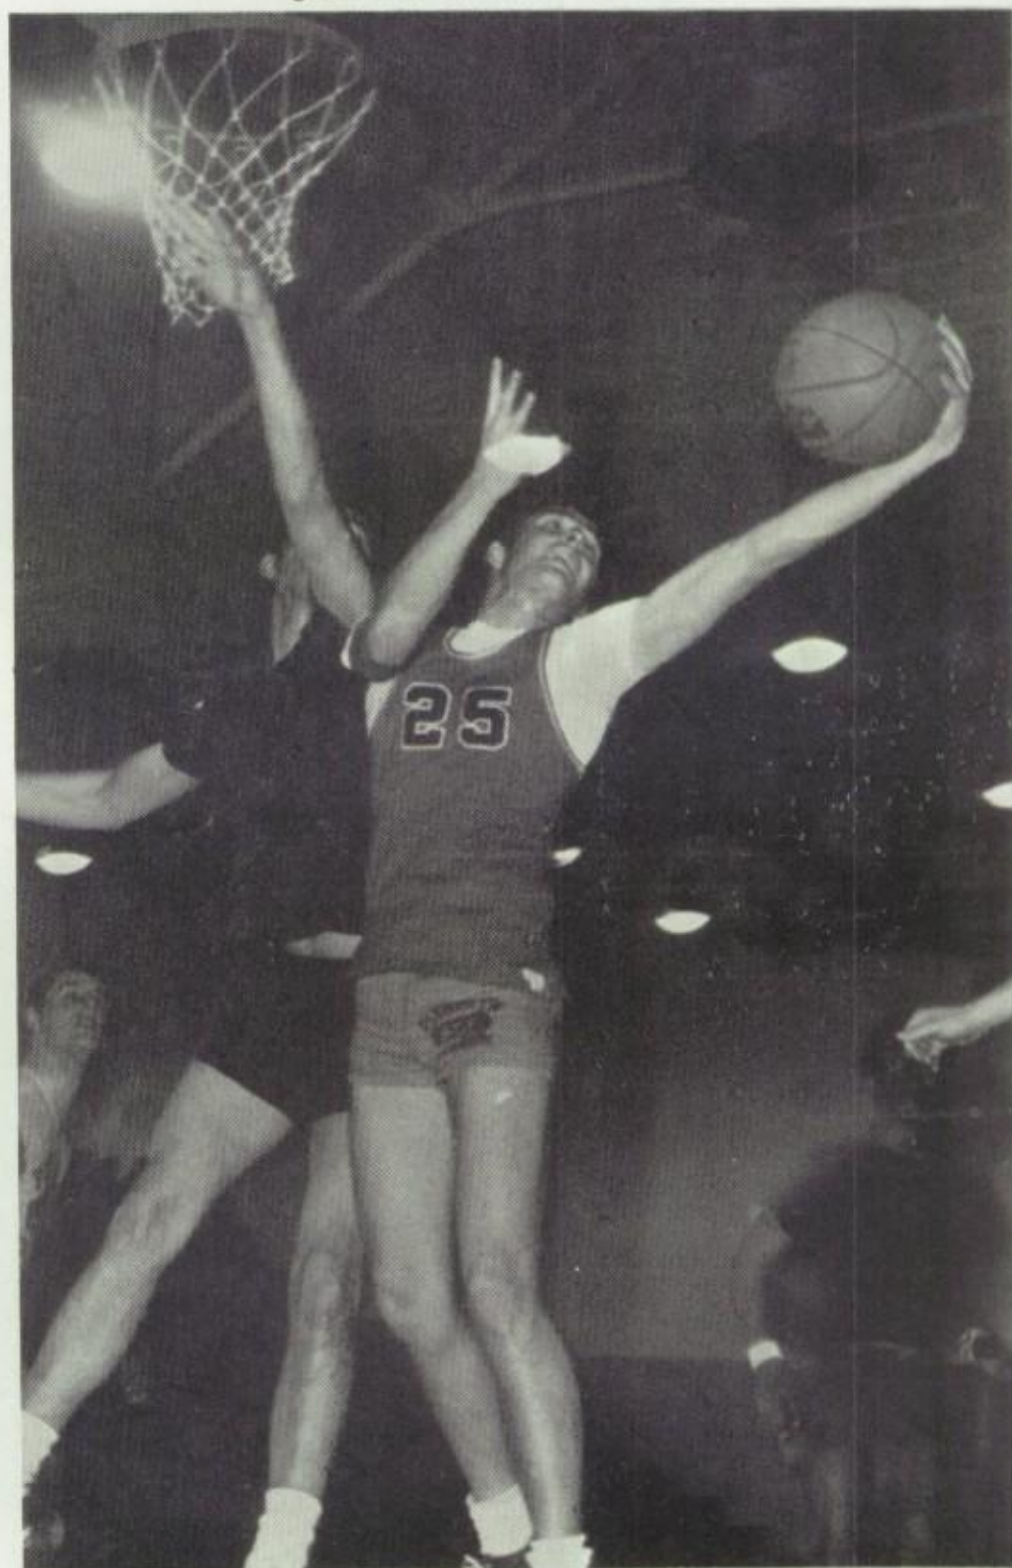

It was experience against hustle and the faculty's experience proved to be too much for the '70 men to handle.

Heading the attack for the teachers were Bill Mikolyzk and Ron Veleke. It was their consistent rebounding and scoring in the clutch that decided the issue. However the brilliant tutoring the faculty received from coach Harry Greenwald was a big factor in the win.

For the seniors the big guns were Gerry Friederichs and Tom Weedman. The seniors pulled out all the stops, but could not save themselves from defeat.

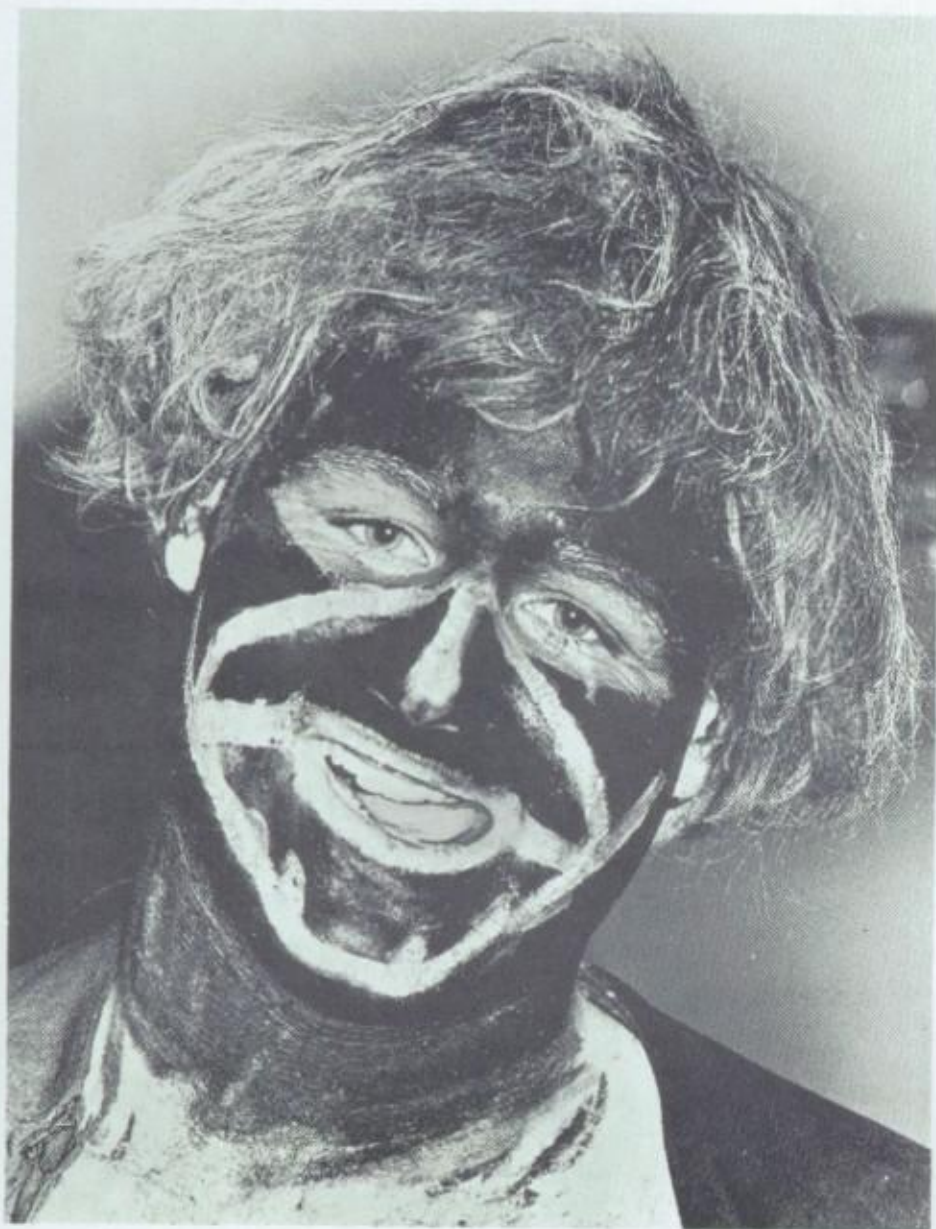

Mr. Veleke, one of the high scorers for the teachers goes for another bucket.

Even in defeat, the seniors kept their championship style.

Are You Ugly Ugly Man 1970

Who will be the next Ugly Man?
All eyes are on the candidates.

This year the Ugly Man contest, sponsored by Student Council, was proven once more to be a popular event. The candidates were Sue Aaberg, Joe Dellger, Gary Kellner, Larry Schuricht, Mary Ziegler, and Mr. Rettig. First, all the candidates and their managers put forth great efforts to make their ugliness known around school by putting up signs and passing around propaganda. This went on for about a week and was climaxed by the "Ugly Pageant" held on Friday afternoon. At the dance, kids voted for their favorite ugly, who turned out to be Gary Kellner. All profits were donated to AFS.

The Man who Came to Dinner

As the result of a broken leg, famous lecturer-critic Sheridan Whiteside is confined to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley. Besides getting himself involved in two romances, Whiteside keeps the Stanley household in chaos entertaining his unusual friends. How he manages all this in a few short weeks is the basis for an unforgettable comedy.

"Dear Mr. Whiteside, I've brought you a present."

Basketball Festivities

Mr. and Miss Basketball, Gerry Friederichs and Sally Adams.

Mothers of the basketball players and cheerleaders were special guests on Mom's Night.

Friday, February 13, "The Truth" provided the music for the Mr. and Miss Basketball dance while students anxiously awaited the selection of this year's royalty.

The crowd gathered around as Coach Cabby Wild approached to speak. "Mr. Basketball for 1969-70 is none other than Gerry Friederichs." The tension was broken and the volume increased as Gerry crowned Miss Basketball, Sally Adams. The scene was one of emotion as tears of happiness and handshakes of congratulation surrounded the royal couple.

Winners of the events were rewarded by the girls on the court.

The day was overcast, but it turned sunny when Plymouth won the annual J. H. Williams Track Meet.

Queen Denise Ryan reigned over the meet. She and the other girls on the court rewarded winners of the events with ribbons and kisses.

Camelot

The 1969 Junior Prom was known as Camelot. It had many happy memories and many sad ones when that night had to end. The young couples were entertained by the "Lockwood Trio." A medieval castle with a garden and stream gave the impression of a far-off dream.

A Swing A Hit A Run

The 1969 baseball team failed to capture a part of the crown for the first time in three years. After defeats to New Holstein and Valders, the Panthers ran up seven straight victories in conference. Only the undefeated Huskies and the once beaten Vikings placed better than the Panthers.

Dennis Doebert led all the hitters, followed by Bruce Krahn, Steve Meyer, Dale Miller and Gary Kramer. Tom Weedman and Bruce Krahn handled the pitching chores. Bruce received the MVP award and Dennis Doebert was voted captain. The Panthers were coached by Mr. Fred Henschel.

Football Panther Style

Coach Johnson gives a critical eye to the game.

This year the Plymouth Panther Varsity Squad started the season under new head coach DeWayne Johnson. They played a number of non-conference games for openers and altogether ended the season with a 2-1-2 record which put them in third place in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Although the season was disappointing to some people, the game was and will always be a P.H.S. favorite. Four boys also qualified for all-conference selection. They were Gerry Friederichs, Tom Mugan, Steve Stenklyft and Gordon Vick. Co-captains were Dale Miller, Tom Mugan, and Gordon Vick. Next year the Panthers will be playing in the newly formed Packerland Conference and will be ready to fight. While the Varsity Squad seemed to get all the spotlight, a beam of it should be directed to the J.V. team who won their conference championship with a record of 5 wins and 2 losses.

The Plymouth Panther basketball team compiled a very successful record this year. They won sixteen games and lost only three. An EWC Championship and a WIAA District Tournament Championship were results of this record.

Coach Clarence "Cabby" Wild took a team which was picked as nothing higher than a dark horse by the other coaches and molded them into a team which the school could be proud of. The Panthers twice whipped Falls, the odds on favorites to take the Championship, by a total of 62 points and clinched Plymouth's first title since 1961 in an emotional battle on the Falcons home court.

Coach Wild played six seniors most of the time and four of them made the all-conference team. Tom Weedman was a unanimous choice to the first team. Hot shooting Clark Kaufmann was also first team. Gerry Friederichs made the second squad and Bruce Krahn got an honorable mention.

Dale Miller and Gerry Friederichs were voted as co-most valuable players. Bruce Krahn was the team captain.

Special thanks should go to Tom Nygaard, who kept the team in perfect shape and to the fans at PHS without whom a very big year for the Panthers could never have happened.

The wrestlers finished up their 1969-70 season with a strong showing in the conference and regional matches.

Plymouth went into the conference meet in fifth place with hopes of overtaking Kiel. Although they weren't successful in this they made a good effort. Bob Goelzer took a second and Steve Kestell and Mark Goetsch got thirds. At the regional meet Mark Hembel took a third and Dave Kestell a fourth.

Plymouth's track team was a strong contender throughout the season. After a shaky start with a 72-25 loss to Cedarburg, the Panthers got back on the winning path with a victory over Kiel and Chilton in a triangular meet. Standouts for Plymouth during the year were the Stankevitz brothers, Erv and Al, in the hurdles and high jump, Tom Fritz in the shot and 220, Larry Lisowe in the 880, Bruce Krahn in the 440, and Jim Foley in the 880. Prospects are good for the future because there are many underclass lettermen to fill the positions left by the seniors.

The Love Game

The 1970 Plymouth tennis team was coached by Mr. Jerry Brinkman. In his first year as head coach, Mr. Brinkman got his first victory over Reedsville early in the season by a score of 6 - 3.

The netters played their matches and held practice at the two courts in the city park and the one at the Youth Center. Five home matches and three away matches were played.

Bill Wifler, Dale Miller, Gene Schaefer and Tom Nygaard formed the core of the team. Dale was selected as team captain.

Eugene Schaefer's strong arm was a big asset to the team.

The Golf Club

The 1970 golf team under the direction of Coach Bill Mikolyzk strove for another championship. Medalist Tom Weedman was back to add to the power of the team.

The season began slowly, but the boys showed their Panther skill at meets in Chilton, Falls, New Holstein, Keil, and Grafton.

Enthusiasm Plus

Panther spirit was with us all year long and many times it meant the difference between victory and defeat. The PHS cheerleaders maintained and directed this wild exuberance for the Panther teams. Through their efforts the pride of supporting the team was felt by all students.

Setting up a lounge was one of the Student Council's big projects.

During 1969-70 Student Council again became a vital force in student affairs at Plymouth High School. Early in the year it became evident that this group of dynamic students was not going to sit idly by. First on the list of accomplishments was the institution of an after school snack bar in the cafeteria from which many organizations earned money.

As the year progressed other activities were added including initiating Operation Patriotism, organizing a student lounge and revising the constitution.

This year's Council has laid the foundation for future growth and development at PHS.

Hi-Y and its feminine counterpart, Tri-Hi-Y, are Christian service organizations.

Junior and senior girls are eligible for membership in Tri-Hi-Y. This year the group made favors for the patients at Rocky Knoll Sanitarium and Plymouth Hospital for Thanksgiving and Christmas. They went caroling in the community and sold candy and Christmas wrapping paper. The girls also sponsored a little girl, Lin Hui-Mei, from Japan.

During the 1969-70 school year membership in Hi-Y jumped to its highest total since 1964. Initiation, although hectic for new members, was enjoyable.

Many times recreational programs took the place of the regular business meetings, although the club did meet twice a month.

Future Teachers

Future Teachers of America is designed to help juniors and seniors interested in a teaching career. Each member chooses a teacher she would like to help and corrects papers, makes bulletin boards, does typing and various other things for that teacher. Members earn points according to the work done and awards are given on that basis. Interested members may visit the elementary schools to observe teaching in progress.

Preparing for The Future

Future Homemakers of America was formed to develop and maintain an interest in the various fields of home economics. The group takes field trips during the year and one particular highlight is the candle-light ceremony for installing officers.

Future Farmers of America strives to make a better community by giving members experience in agricultural occupations and community service. Besides attending state and national conventions and taking trips to manufacturing plants, the boys have recreational activities including trips to Canada, swimming parties and basketball games.

The FHA and FFA get together every spring for a banquet.

Selling The Product

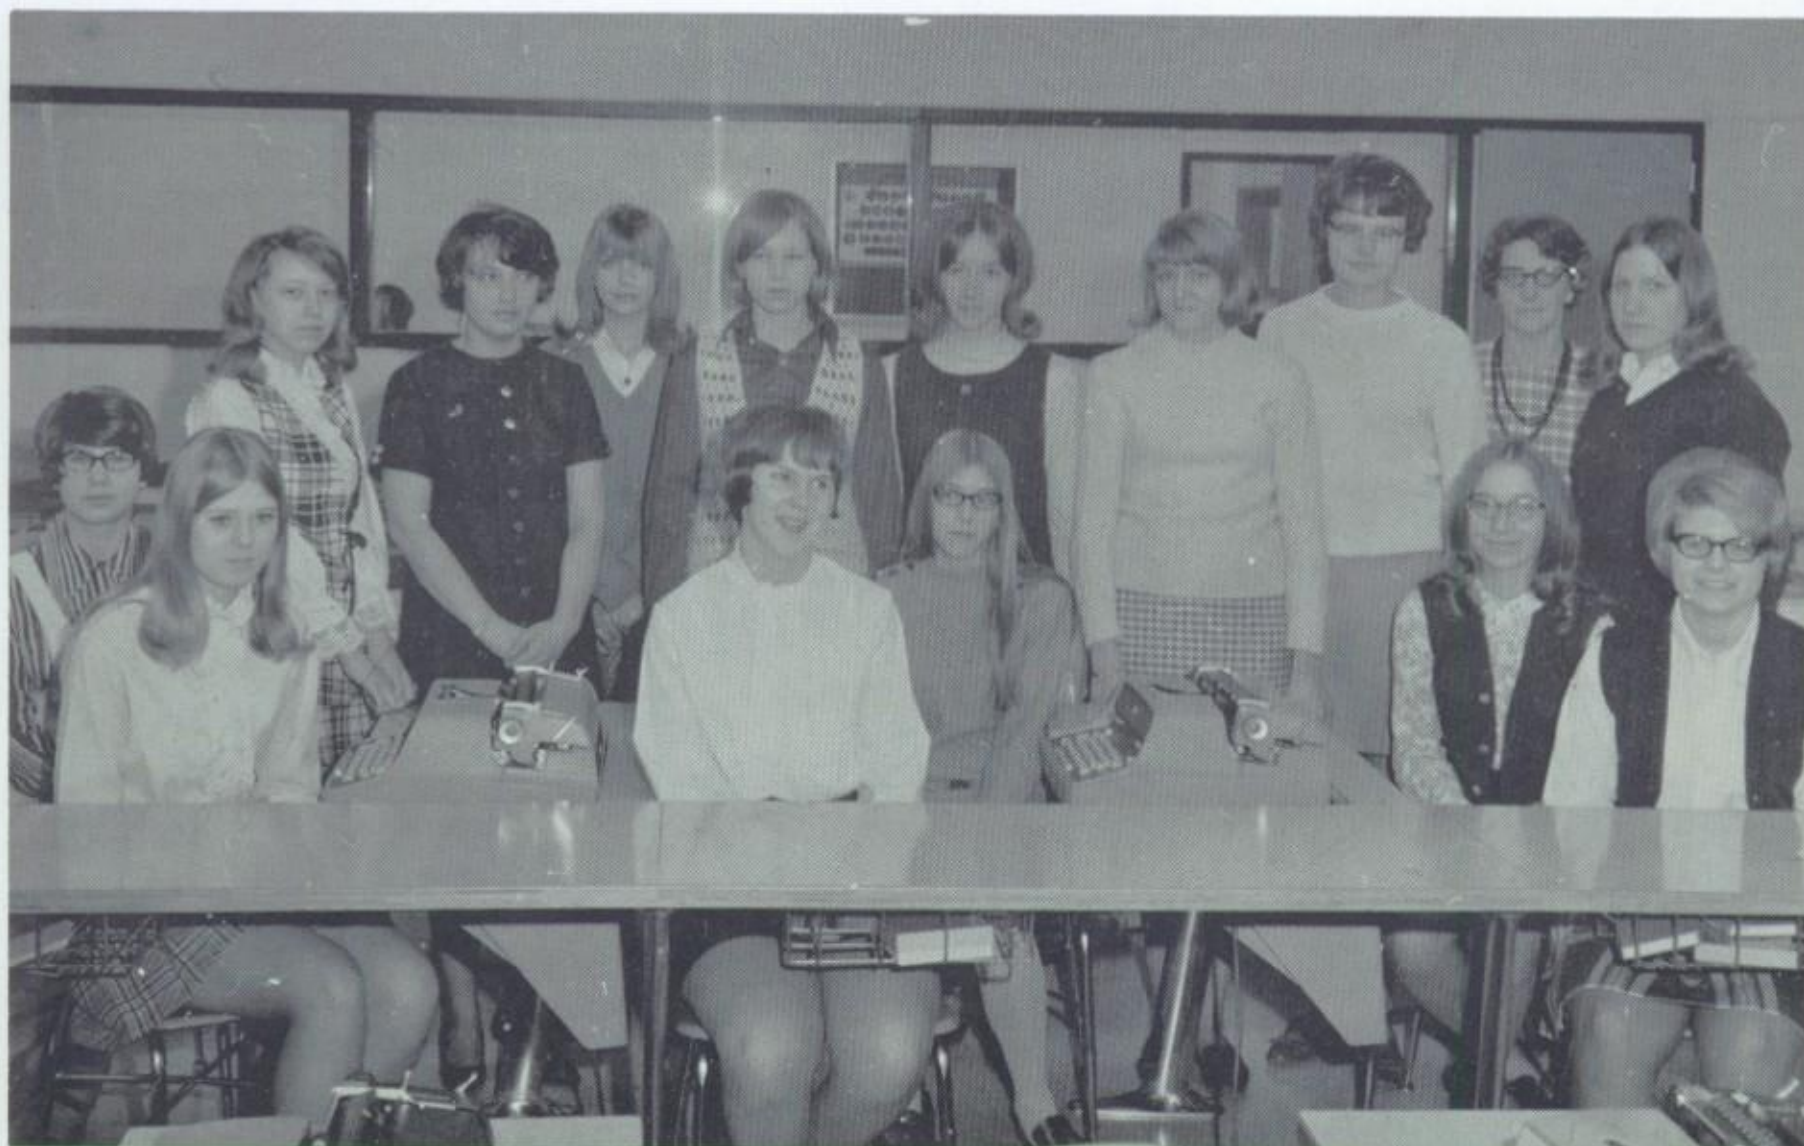

The Distributive Education Club of America is relatively new at PHS. It is designed to further a student's knowledge of salesmanship. The club works on projects such as setting up display windows and selling campaigns. Through their activities in the club members gain practical experience for the future.

Business Leaders

Future Business Leaders of America is a group of students interested in pursuing business careers. Members of the club do mimeographing and typing for teachers. They also type programs for the football games.

FBLA members like Laura Ertel type for teachers and make programs for athletic events.

Visual Communication

The projection staff consists of boys from all grades. They are under the supervision of Mr. Haffeman who repairs the equipment. The students on the staff are stationed in the projection room for several periods during the day. During these periods they deliver the equipment and operate it if requested. At the end of the day the students return the equipment to the projection room. The stage crew operates the sound and lighting in the auditorium.

They take pictures for the newspaper, the annual and just for their own enjoyment. Students may be assigned to the math-science center during their free modules so that they can use the dark room and photography equipment.

Club president, Frank Cuva, has the double job of being chief photographer for the Hi-Lights and the Quit Qui Oc.

Student Librarians

The library club is an organization formed to make the library more efficient. Thirty-one librarian worked throughout the year to keep students interested in books.

Student librarians dust, keep the books in order and maintain the magazine room. They sponsored a book fair, a Christmas tea for teachers, and an awards banquet at the end of the year.

Creative Expression

Forensics proved a rewarding entry for Plymouth High School this year. New Holstein's contest started the literary action, sending six Plymouth students to Oshkosh for district competition. Cathy Wifler and Joan Mugan were then graduated to the State Tournament in Madison. Forensics action included extemporaneous speaking, oratory, play acting, memorized declamation, four minute speech, public address, prose reading, poetry reading, and significant speech. Students were given awards for outstanding work at the end of the school year.

The Creative Writing Club was formed to encourage P.H.S. students to communicate with others through writing. One of the club's goal was to set up a scholarship fund to send members to summer school for writing courses. At the end of each year a pamphlet will be published containing stories and poetry written by students.

Officers were Dave Prast, president; Jean Ann Blanke, editor; and Linda Parsons, secretary.

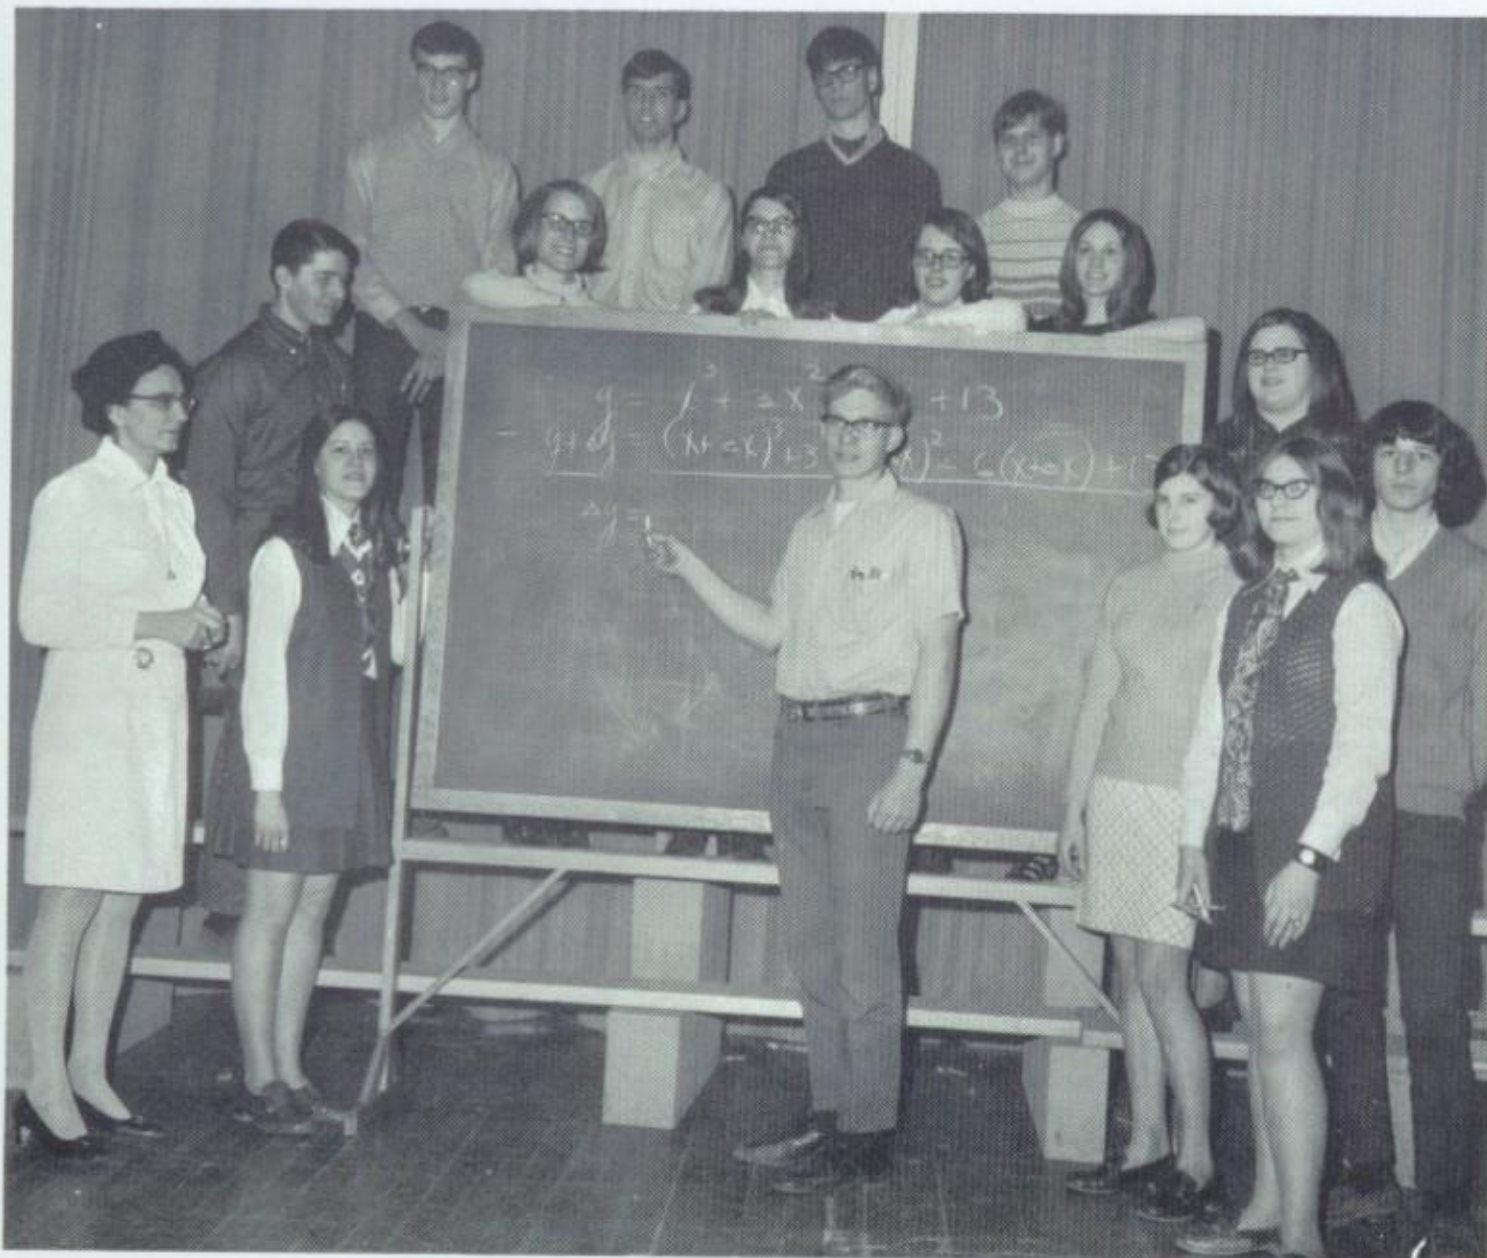

The secret of good writing

The math lab is a new facility with two purposes: (1) to help students with problems in math and (2) to give students who wish to excel in math an opportunity to work together and exchange ideas. Student volunteers devote their free periods to assisting students with problems and assignments.

Snakes, Snails and Skeletons

The twenty-five members of Science Club have adopted a two-fold purpose for their club: first to create a greater interest in Science by developing and exhibiting science projects, and second, to broaden educational interests by exploring new fields of vocational and professional work in the sciences.

Science Club has traditionally been involved in an Arbor Day presentation, and has been an active participant in the annual science fair each spring. Trophies and prizes are awarded to science fair winners by the club.

The club was headed this year by three officers: President Robert Rodolph, Vice-president Barb Lasek, and Recorder Chris Kaufmann. The Science Club advisor is Mr. Scheible.

Checkmate Challengers

Chess Club members like to think of themselves as the intellectual cream of the crop from Plymouth High School. This year was one of famine and drought. The club participated in the second annual tournament with Oostburg and didn't lose. They didn't win either. What they did was have a lot of fun.

The club, with Mr. Larry Mand as advisor, meets on Thursdays in Room B-133. Members learn how to record moves, use new openings, and develop new moves. Chess is one of the world's favorite games and Chess Club has tried to make it a little better known at Plymouth High.

Letter Club is an organization for boys who have earned a letter in some sport. The club again had its gruesome initiation for the new lettermen. They quickly learn to appreciate their membership in the club.

Track season is highlighted by the J. H. Williams track meet which is sponsored by the Letter Club. The club also sponsored the Varsity-Faculty basketball game and the Homecoming dance.

The Ski Club, a relatively new organization in our school, had a very successful year. For the first time members were able to trek to Rib Mountain, one of Wisconsin's great ski resorts, for a glorious day of fun, sun, and snow. The combination of PHS ambition and Wisconsin winters has made Ski Club one of the favorite clubs in our school.

Promoting

This year Pep Club took on some new jobs. Besides the task of making pep signs and spreading school pep, the club added the sponsoring of Mom's Night and Dad's Night in honor of the parents of athletes to their list of activities. In order to raise money for paper and paint, they held a car wash early in the year, and also ran the concession stand for a week. The biggest event sponsored by Pep Club was the Mr. and Miss Basketball Dance. A band called "The Truth" provided the music, and the decorations included a salute to the senior basketball players. The point system was also revised this year and many deserving members were given awards at the Awards Day Assembly.

Panther Pep

Pantherettes is a 32-girl drill team unit that performs for special events during the school year. Tryouts for this group are held annually in the spring, so the group is made up entirely of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. This year the Pantherettes wore the traditional black outfit—a short black skirt and top with black tights. Fluffy black and orange pompoms added the final spark.

Their routine this year was done to the tune of "Georgy Girl" and it was presented at the Homecoming football game and a basketball game. Co-captains this year were Paula Anton and Cheryl Meyer. These girls, with the help of their advisor, Miss Grauer, have done a lot of work to make Pantherettes a really fine performing unit of PHS.

Don't step on the cracks.

Packers they'll never be, but it's fun anyway.

Keeping in Shape

The Girls' Athletic Association provides an opportunity for girls to participate in sports under the direction of Miss Grauer. The aim of the club is to practice good sportsmanship, and to bring out such qualities as enthusiasm, leadership, and character. Sports played include basketball, track, football, tumbling, swimming and bowling. Pins and letters are earned based on a point system.

This year the basketball, volleyball and track teams played several other schools. During the year the entire club got together for an Indian Relay. The year's activities were ended with a picnic at which new officers were elected.

Kippers Present "People"

Kippers is a synchronized swimming club at PHS. Each year girls try out for the group and are chosen on ability and attendance at workshop sessions. Kippers from the previous year do the selecting.

The Kippers' biggest annual project is the presentation of a water show. This year their theme was "People". Some numbers included were "Puppets", "Hippies", and "Funny People". An especially pleasing atmosphere was created by the colorful backdrops used. Also included in the show were modern dance routines performed by the Modern Dance Group during costume changes.

Class of '70

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Allan Chaplin, vice-president; Charles Krupp, president; Morreen O'Reilly, treasurer; Barb Kallenberg, secretary.

MOTTO: "What we are to be, we are becoming."

FLOWER: Yellow rose

COLORS: Forest green and lime green

Four years ago the Class of 1970 entered the portals of high school as green as any freshman class, and as innocent. Now, four years later, they are leaving this protective environment to face a world not of their own making, but one in which they must survive. The reaction to having spent four years within these walls differs from person to person. Some can't wait to get out and be on their own. Some are eager to enter college. Some will get married. And some have made no plans for the future at all. No matter how each has, or has not, prepared for his future, the fact remains that after that special night when each member of the class receives his diploma on the auditorium stage there is no turning back to the safe sanctuary of high school. That part of your life is gone forever. There will be a mixture of joy and sorrow in each heart. But regardless how each individual accepts the condition of graduation, one fact is irrevocable as you cross that stage. You can't go back ever again.

The class of '70 enjoys the distinction of being the first graduating class to have spent a full four years in the new high school. Because of this, PHS undoubtedly has more sentimental attachments than it had for previous classes. The seniors have led the student body ably and well in all areas of endeavor, from pep, to sports, to academic achievement, to the establishment of a senior lounge. They have established precedents, and maintained the integrity of student government. Sturdy characters and personalities were molded during the four years spent at PHS. Now as you prepare to leave the confines of your comfortable, safe existence to go out into a world of change and challenge, you can look back on four unparalleled years of your lives, years during which you grew to maturity. Your school has stood you in good stead. It has succeed in weaning you away from childhood and the toys of youth. For this, and many other memories each of you holds, a debt of gratitude is owed, and a sense of pride is demanded as you take leave of your Alma Mater.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS:

Jay Giffin, Vice-President
Mary Kohlbeck, Treasurer
Eunice Ford, Secretary

Ordering class rings brightened up registration day for members of the Junior Class. The rings were received after Thanksgiving and, with traditional PHS spirit, many of them were given away. During Homecoming the Juniors decorated halls, built floats, and almost walked away with the "little brown jug" for their tireless cheering. A pennant sale and a dance, featuring Gentle Thud, helped raise money for the prom, the highlight of the Junior year.

Sophomore Class Officers: President: Mark Deicher, Vice-President: Jeff Giffin, Secretary: Merrie Hellestad, Treasurer: Judy Novotny

The Sophomore Class had an especially fine sports record this year. The J.V. Football Team came out as conference champs, and their basketball team has done fine also. They are especially proud of their class members who qualified for both Varsity Football and Cheerleading. During Homecoming they placed highly in float competition and second in hall decoration competition. Their class project this year was to raise money for future class activities; this was headed by the class officers and the finance committee.

Freshman Class Officers: President: Ed Adams, Vice-President: Chuck Wifler, Secretary: Wendy Bubb, Treasurer: Barb Miller

The Class of '73 came in quietly this year, but as the year wore on they began to make their mark in P.H.S. They participated vigorously in the musical and in Homecoming, and their school spirit proved a rival for all of the other classes. We can be sure that the Class of '73 will continue in the same spirit in which they have begun.

STATESVILLE, N. CAROLINA
OOSTBURG, WISCONSIN

The management and employees of Lauer's Super Mart in Plymouth would like to thank you for your loyal patronage for over 50 years of business. We hope that you feel that this is your market . . . because actually it is you, our customers, who have built it into the FINEST COMPLETELY HOME-OWNED AND OPERATED SUPER MARKET in Sheboygan County.

We would like you to know that all of the folks who are employed here use their earnings and profits to help develop the immediate community. None of their salaries or profits leave the state of Wisconsin.

May we again give you our personal "thank you" . . . you more than deserve it! — Joe Abstetar, Deloris Bennet and the Lauer's Super Mart Employees.
